From Tuesday Auguſt 4, to Saturday Auguſt 8, 1761.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For Recalling and Prohibiting Seamen from ſerving Foreign Princes and States: For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able-bodied Landmen to enter themſelves on Board His Majeſty's Ships of War; and for granting Rewards for diſcovering ſuch Seamen as ſhall conceal themſelves.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We are informed, that great Numbers of Mariners and Seafaring Men, Our natural-born Subjects, are in the Service of divers Foreign Princes and States, to the Prejudice of Our Kingdom: And whereas Our Service doth, at this Time, require a ſpeedy Supply of Seamen and Seafaring Men, to Mann ſuch of Our Ships as are now ready to be Commiſſioned, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy-Council, to publiſh this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby ſtrictly charge and command all Maſters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men whatſoever and whereſoever, (being our natural-born Subjects) who are in the Pay or Service of any Foreign Prince or State, or do ſerve in any Foreign Ship or Veſſel, that forthwith they, and every of them, do (according to their known and bounden Duty and Allegiance) withdraw themſelves, depart from, and quit ſuch Foreign Services, and return Home to their native Countries. And farther, We do hereby ſtrictly prohibit and forbid all Maſters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men whatſoever, (being Our natural-born Subjects) from entering, and do charge and command them, and every of them, from henceforth, to forbear to enter themſelves into the Pay or Service of any Foreign Prince or State, or to ſerve in any Foreign Ship or Veſſel whatſoever, without our ſpecial Licence firſt had and obtained in that Behalf; to all which We expect due Obedience, and exact Conformity. And We do hereby publiſh and declare, That the Offenders to the contrary ſhall not only incur Our juſt Diſpleaſure, but be proceeded againſt for their Contempt, according to the utmoſt Severities of the Law. And We do hereby declare, That if any ſuch Maſters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, or other Seafaring Men, (being Our Subjects) ſhall be taken in any Foreign Service, by the Turks, Algerines, or any others, that they ſhall not be reclaimed by Us, as Subjects of Great Britain. And whereas it is Our Royal Intention to give all due Encouragement to all ſuch Seamen, Seafaring Men, and able-bodied Landmen, who ſhall voluntarily enter themſelves in Our Service, We do hereby promiſe and declare, That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be paid to every ſuch Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who ſhall, on or before the Twelfth Day of September next, voluntarily enter themſelves to ſerve in Our Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Our Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board ſuch Tenders as ſhall be employed for raiſing Men, for the Service of Our Royal Navy; and alſo, that a Bounty of Thirty Shillings be paid to every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who ſhall, on or before the ſaid Twelfth Day of September next, voluntarily enter themſelves to ſerve in Our Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Our Ships, or the Chief Officers on board ſuch Tenders, as ſhall be employed for raiſing Men for the Service of Our Royal Navy; and that ſuch reſpective Sums be paid to all ſuch Seamen and Landmen, upon their being brought on Board Our Ships at any of Our Dock Yards in England, by the Clerks of the Cheque; or upon their being put on Board any Ship or Veſſel, appointed to receive Men at Leith or Greenock in Scotland, or at Dublin or Corke in Ireland, by the Captains or Commanders of the Ships or Veſſels, whereinto ſuch Seamen and Landmen ſhall be put, or by the Sea Officer employed in raiſing Men on Shore. And for Prevention of any Abuſes by any Perſons leaving the Ships or Veſſels to which they ſhall belong, and entering themſelves on Board any other Our Ships or Veſſels, in order to obtain the ſaid Bounty-Money; We do hereby declare and command, That ſuch Seamen or Landmen, belonging to any of Our Ships or Veſſels, as ſhall abſent themſelves from any of the ſaid Ships or Veſſels to which they ſhall belong, and enter themſelves on Board any other of Our Ships or Veſſels, in order to obtain the ſaid Bounty, ſhall not only loſe the Wages due to them in the Ships or Veſſels they ſhall leave, but alſo be ſeverely puniſhed according to their Demerits. And We do hereby further promiſe and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, ſhall be paid to any Perſon who ſhall diſcover any Seaman or Seamen, who may ſecret themſelves, ſo that ſuch Seaman or Seamen ſhall be taken for Our ſaid Service, on or before the ſaid Twelfth Day of September next, by any of Our Sea Officers employed for Raiſing Men: The ſaid Rewards to be paid for any Seaman or Seamen ſo diſcovered and taken in and about London, by the Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of Our Navy; and, at the Out Ports, by the Naval Officers, where there are any; and where there are no Naval Officers, by the Collectors of Our Cuſtoms, immediately on a Certificate being produced to the ſaid Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of Our Navy, Naval Officers, or Collectors of Our Cuſtoms reſpectively, by the Perſon who may make Diſcovery of any Seaman or Seamen as aforeſaid, certifying his Name, and the Name or Names, and Number of Seamen procured in Conſequence of his Diſcovery; and the ſaid Certificate to be given by ſuch Officer as may take ſuch Seaman or Seamen for Our Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the 22d Day of July, 1761, in the Firſt Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

St. James's, Auguſt 8.

The three following Addreſſes have been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, and preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Aſſembly of Jamaica.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Aſſembly of this your Majeſty's Iſland of Jamaica, do, with the utmoſt Reluctance, renew your Majeſty's Grief, by calling to Mind the great great Loſs your Majeſty and your loyal People have ſuſtained by the Death of your Royal Grandfather, whoſe Longevity was crowned with Glory: But, actuated by a tender and grateful Remembrance of the many Bleſſings we enjoyed under His mild and auſpicious Reign; a Reign that will be ever celebrated, and ſhine conſpicuous in the Rolls of Fame, we ſhould be deficient in our Duty to your Majeſty, as well as wanting to ourſelves, did we omit condoling with your Majeſty on this melancholy Occaſion.

From the ſame Principles of Duty, Affection, and Attachment, to your Royal Perſon, give us Leave, Sir, to congratulate your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors. From your Majeſty's known Diſpoſition and Goodneſs of Heart, we reſt aſſured, that no Opportunity of promoting the Happineſs and Proſperity of a great and free People, will be ſuffered to paſs unimproved, by a Prince that glories in the Name of Briton.

Though it is our Misfortune to be ſituated at ſo remote a Diſtance from your Royal Preſence, permit us, Sir, to aſſure you, that our Wiſhes are as warm, and Prayers as fervent, for your Majeſty's Safety and Preſervation, as thoſe that ariſe in your own Court.

May your Majeſty continue to reign in the Hearts and Affections of your People, and long live the Guardian of their Rights! May your Majeſty acquire and accumulate Glory, and long live the Admiration of the World!

Paſſed the Aſſembly the 2d Day of April 1761.

Ch. Price, Speaker.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of His Majeſty's Council and the General Aſſembly of the Province of New Jerſey.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and General Aſſembly of the Colony of New Jerſey, beg Leave, in the ſincereſt Manner, to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late glorious and much lamented Sovereign, whoſe Benevolence and Fatherly Care, with Gratitude, we acknowledge to have been as extenſive as his Dominions. Deeply ſenſible, Sire, of the Protection we have loſt, your eminent and early Virtues adminiſter immediate Conſolation; and we ſee your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of your Realms, with that Degree of Joy, that the moſt fortunate Event can inſpire in ſo general a Calamity; moſt humbly beſeeching your Majeſty to accept the united and cordial Congratulations of this your Colony, as the unfeigned Tender of our Affection and firm Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government.

By Order of the Council,
Rob. H. Morris, Pres.

By Order of the General Aſſembly,
Samuel Nevill.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governor, Council, and Burgeſſes of Virginia.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's ever loyal and faithful Subjects, the Lieutenant Governor, Council, and Burgeſſes of Virginia, having a juſt Senſe of the great Loſs we have ſuſtained by the Death of our late Sovereign King George the Second, of bleſſed Memory, humbly beg Leave, in the moſt dutiful Manner, to condole with your Majeſty on this melancholy Occaſion.

It would only aggravate our Sorrow to enumerate the Virtues of your Royal Grandfather. The Duty we owe to your Majeſty and our Country, obliges us to moderate our Grief, and heartily to congratulate your Majeſty upon your Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors: An Event that affords us the moſt pleaſing, unbounded Proſpect of the Continuance of every Bleſſing to us, and our Poſterity, that can be deſired by a free People.

Your Majeſty's moſt gracious and ſolemn Declaration, to make it the Buſineſs of your Life to promote, in every Thing, the Glory and Happineſs of your Kingdoms, to preſerve and ſtrengthen the Conſtitution both in Church and State, muſt warm the Heart of every Briton. The preſent Generation will more immediately feel the Effects of this paternal Declaration, but the beneficial Conſequences of it muſt be tranſmitted to Generations yet unborn. With what Pleaſure may we from hence extend our View, and anticipate the future Glories of your Majeſty's Reign!

This Inſtance of your Majeſty's great Goodneſs to your People, cannot fail of meeting with all imaginable Returns of Duty and Loyalty.

We beg Leave on our Parts to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Fidelity, and unalterable Attachment to your Perſon and Government; and we implore the Divine Providence, that your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long and happy, and that the Imperial Crown of Great Britain may continue in your Illuſtrious Houſe till Time ſhall be no more.

The following Addreſs of the Preſbyterian Miniſters of the Northern Aſſociation in Ireland, having been tranſmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſbyterian Miniſters of the Northern Aſſociation in Ireland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WITH Hearts full of Veneration for the Memory of your Royal Grandfather, under whoſe auſpicious Reign theſe Nations enjoyed many invaluable Bleſſings, we, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Preſbyterian Miniſters of the Northern Aſſociation in Ireland, take this firſt Opportunity of our annual Meeting, to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors; and to expreſs our unfeigned Affection, and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

When we behold a Prince of the Houſe of Hanover, again aſcending the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, a Prince ſo happily endowed by Nature, formed by Education, and ſo early diſtinguiſhed by his Abilities for Government, and a paternal Love of his People, the higheſt Sentiments of Reverence and Eſteem poſſeſs our Hearts, and the moſt pleaſing and joyful Proſpects riſe to our View.

Your Majeſty's ſeaſonable Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of Vice and Immorality, and the Encouragement of Virtue, muſt endear you to all good Men; and enforced by ſo great an Example, muſt have a moſt ſalutary and extenſive Influence, and draw down the Bleſſing of Heaven upon your Reign.

The Royal Aſſurances, ſo graciouſly and freely given, that you will ſupport our preſent happy Conſtitution; the tender Regard your Majeſty has been pleaſed to expreſs for the Rights of Conſcience; and your Reſolution to maintain the Toleration inviolable, have greatly added to all former Ties of Duty and Gratitude, and laid us, as Proteſtant Diſſenters, under peculiar Obligations.

For theſe, and other Teſtimonies, of your Royal Goodneſs and Favour, the moſt ſuitable Return, which Perſons in our Situation can make is, a moſt aſſiduous Care to propagate juſt Sentiments of Piety and ſocial Virtue, and to inculcate Principles of the ſtricteſt Fidelity and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government; by which Conduct, it ſhall always be our higheſt Ambition to merit the Continuance of your Royal Countenance and Protection.

Your Majeſty's Proteſtant Diſſenting Subjects in the North of Ireland are a numerous Body; the main Strength of the Proteſtant Intereſt in this Part of the Kingdom; of well-known and diſtinguiſhed

Zeal

Zeal for the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe: And as our Anceſtors in Times of Danger, have ever been ready to ſacrifice their Lives and Fortunes in its Defence and Support, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that nothing ſhall be wanting on our Part, to cheriſh and cultivate the ſame loyal and hereditary Spirit.

Permit us, great Sir, with the reſt of our Fellow Subjects, in the ſincereſt and warmeſt Manner, to congratulate your Majeſty on your late important Conqueſt of Belleiſle, which has reflected ſo much Luſtre on the Beginning of your Reign.

That in the Proſecution of this juſt and neceſſary War, the Lord of Hoſts, to whom Victory belongeth, may crown your Arms with ſtill greater and more remarkable Succeſs, until your Enemies are brought to liſten to juſt and honourable Terms of Peace: That your Majeſty may long live to be the darling and happy Prince of an affectionate and loyal People, the Ornament and Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt, and the Guardian of the Rights and Liberties of Mankind, is, and ſhall be, the earneſt Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt faithful, and moſt loyal Subjects, the Miniſters of the Preſbyterian Denomination of the Northern Aſſociation in Ireland.

Subſcribed in our Name, at Londonderry, July 4, 1761, by Alex. M'Comb.

Copy of a Letter from Eſchwegue, July 21, 1761.

Colonel Freytag having marched the 18th from Eimbeck to Langerſhauſen, with Three Brigades of Chaſſeurs, he detached on the 19th the Captains Kampen and Engell, with 100 Horſe, towards Fuld, in order to divert the Enemy in that Quarter.

This Detachment marched for that Purpoſe, at Day-break, from Langerſhauſen. Being arrived at Allendorff, they paſſed the Werra about Noon, and poſted themſelves in a Wood at a League's Diſtance from Rothenbourg, where they took, on the 20th, Three French Commiſſaries, and ſet Fire to ſome Boats laden with Flour and Oats.

Captain Engell ſet out with 80 Horſe to deſtroy the Enemy's Magazines at Hirſchfeldt: He met in his Way 26 Boats laden with Flour, Oats, Balls, Bombs, and 240 Barrels of Powder, which he threw into the River Fulde, and ſet Fire to the Boats.

According to the Advices he had, the Garriſon of Hirſchfeldt was ſuppoſed to conſiſt only of 200 Men, which induced Captain Engell to make his Diſpoſitions (after having cut his Way through the Guard) for attacking the Place.

Some Chaſſeurs and Huſſars appearing in thoſe Parts, in the Evening the Commandant had doubled the Guard, and the Picquet, poſted at the Gates of the Town. He had alſo ordered 60 Dragoons from Melſungen, who arrived at Hirſchfeldt about Three in the Morning. Notwithſtanding this, Captain Engell cauſed the Gate to be forced by a Lieutenant, who cut his Way through the Guard, and penetrated into the City; but finding the Enemy's Infantry very alert, and that they fired upon him briſkly from the Houſes, he was obliged to retire. Captain Engell attacked at the ſame Time the Picquet, whoſe Officer and 30 Men threw themſelves into a Barrack, which was thatched with Straw, and ſerved as an Office to the Keepers of their Magazines. Captain Engell ſummoned, at ſeveral Times, that Party to ſurrender, and to lay down their Arms, which they refuſing to do, heſet Fire to the Barrack, and cut all the Picquet to Pieces, except four Men, to whom his People gave Quarter. Five Men, who remained too long in the Barrack, periſhed there, as well as the Store-keeper, and his Office, according to the Priſoners Report. Captain Engell having got rid of the Picquet, and meeting with no other Obſtacle, cauſed the Hay, lodged along the Fulda, to be ſet on Fire; and likewiſe about 20 Links of burning Pitch, to be faſtened to the Sacks of Meal and Oats. This Fire communicated itſelf to many Barrels of Powder, (of which there was a great Quantity on the Bank of the River) and blew them up. If Captain Engell had had a greater Force, he would have been able to have thrown many thouſand Bombs, and large Balls, into the River.

The whole Loſs, attending this Expedition, conſiſted only in one Horſe, and one Man wounded in the Hand, by a Thruſt of a Bayonet. On the other Hand, he made Priſoners 14 Men, one Commiſſary of War named Monferant, one Commis, two Lieutenants, and Lieutenant Colonel Stutterheim, of the Saxon Regiment of Prince Joſeph; all which he brought off with him. He rejoined Captain Kampen at Heimbach, from whence they ſet out together, arrived here on the 21ſt, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning, and were to to repaſs the Werra at Two o'Clock. That Detachment having marched 19 German Miles and an half in 48 Hours, the Horſes could not be but extremely fatigued.

Brunſwick, July 24. We received Yeſterday the diſagreeable News of Prince Henry being dangerouſly wounded in an Attack on the Poſt of Runen the 21ſt in the Evening.

The Enemy have again re-occupied the Poſts which they had abandoned of Beverungen and Hoxter.

Duſſeldorff, July 30. Thirty Ovens have been built at Radingen for the Uſe of Prince Soubize's Army, after having detached 34 Battalions, two Piquets of Joigny, 200 Men of the Brigade of Pelletier, with 24 Pieces of Cannon, and 44 Squadrons, beſides the Huſſars of Chamborant, to reinforce Marſhal Broglio, and to enable him to act offenſively. Prince Soubize's Army paſſed the Roer, and arrived at Herdingen, where the Head Quarters were the 29th; but the Army was to march the next Day.

Cologne, July 31. The Prince of Soubize had his Head Quarters the 29th at Herdingen; but his Army was to march Yeſterday or To-day to Hattingen, from thence to Doeſbourg or Dorſtein, moſt probably the former, to be nearer his Magazines.

Hamburgh, July 31. According to the Advices received here from Magdebourg, nothing of any Conſequence had as yet paſſed in Sileſia to the 24th Inſtant; however, the News of a Battle was hourly expected.

The Swedes having paſſed the River Peene the 21ſt Inſtant, have made themſelves Maſters of the Town of Demmin; but the Pruſſians, under the Command of Colonel Belling, maintain themſelves ſtill at Malchin.

St. James's, Auguſt 5.

This Day Haſſen Bey, Ambaſſador from Tripoly, had an Audience of His Majeſty, to deliver his new Credential Letters.

To which he was introduced by the Right Honourable William Pitt, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Eſq; Aſſiſtant Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Admiralty Office, Auguſt 5.

PUrſuant to an Act of Parliament paſſed in the 26th Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information hath been ſent to this Office, That on the 22d of laſt Month, the Ship Three Brothers, of Weymouth, Thomas Reynolds, Maſter, laden with Coals from Sunderland, bound to Weymouth, having ſprung a Leak between the Floating and Winterton Light, made ſo much Water, that the Maſter was obliged, in order to ſave the Lives of the People on Board, to order her to be put on Shore on the Cockle Sand near Yarmouth, where ſhe is entirely loſt.

J. Clevland.

Victualling Office, Auguſt 3. 1761.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling His Majeſty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 24th Inſtant, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to receive Tenders in Writing, ſealed up, from ſuch Perſons as may be willing to contract to ſerve His Majeſty's Navy with Britiſh Butter, Cheſhire, Glouceſter and Warwickſhire Cheeſe, or Cheeſe of equal Goodneſs, for one Year, commencing the 30th of September next. The Conditions of the Contract may be ſeen at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling Office, London.

General Post Office, June 1761.

His Majesty's Post-Master General, for the further Improvement of Correspondence, having been pleased to order, that Letters and Packets shall for the future, be carried Six Days in every Week, instead of Three as at present, between London and the several following Towns, viz. Caxton, Hundington, Stilton, Stamford, Coltesworth, Grantham, Newark, Tuxford, Worsop, Bawtry, Doncaster, Howden, Rawcliff, Thorne, Hull, Ferrybridge, Wakefield, Leeds, Bradford, Halifax, Tadcaster, York, Easingwold, Thirsk, Northallerton, Darlington, Durham, Newcastle, Barnards-Castle, Brough, Penrith, Keswick, Cockermouth, Whitehaven, Carlisle, Daventry, Coventry, Mansfield, Chesterfield, Sheffield, Rotherham, Barnsley, Huthersfield, Wiggan, Chorley, Preston, Garstang, Lancaster, Burton, Kendal, and Appleby.

Also a new Cross Road Branch betwixt Salisbury, Portsmouth, and Gosport, through Stockbridge, and Winchester, by which the Correspondence of Portsmouth, Gosport, Winchester, Southampton, and the Isle of Wight, with Plymouth, Exeter, and all Parts of Cornwall, Devonshire, and Dorsetshire, as well as with Bristol, Bath, Devizes, Melksham, Bradford, Trowbridge, and Salisbury, will be considerably quickened and improved.

And having also been pleased to order, that the Mail betwixt Chesterfield and Manchester, shall for the future pass from Tidswell through Buxton, to Stockport, instead of passing through Chapple in Frith, as it does at present.

Public Notice is hereby given, That these several additional Conveyances, Improvements, and Regulations, will commence on Monday the 6th of July next.

And whereas great Numbers of Letters have hitherto been privately collected and delivered, as well in these as in other Parts of the Kingdom, contrary to Law, to the great Prejudice of the Revenue of the Post-Office; Notice is likewise hereby given, That all Carriers, Coachmen, Watermen, Wherrymen, Dispensers of Country News-Papers, and all other Persons whatsoever, hereafter detected in the illegal collecting, conveying, or delivering of Letters, will be prosecuted with the utmost Severity.

N. B. The Penalty is FIVE POUNDS for every Letter collected or delivered contrary to Law; and ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for every Week this Practice is continued.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Henry Potts, Secretary.

Heralds Office, August 7, 1761.

Having received an Order from the Right Honourable the Earl of Effingham, Deputy Earl Marshal, to return a List of all the Peeresses who may claim to attend at the Coronation of a Queen; and it being impossible, by any other Means than this, to obtain a List in due Time, I am therefore obliged to request the Favour of all such Peeresses, and Dowager Peeresses, to send their Christian Names and Titles to the Heralds Office as soon as conveniently may be.

Office of Works, August 6, 1761.

His Majesty's Board of Works having received an Order from the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee appointed to consider of His Majesty's Coronation, to survey all Scaffolds and Places (for the Safety and Security of His Majesty's Subjects) already made for Spectators, as well as those not yet begun; and also to take Care no Encroachment be made in those Streets and Places where the Procession is to pass: The Board of Works, in Obedience to the said Order, give Notice to all Persons concerned, to take the greatest Care that the said Scaffolds be erected in such Places, and in such Manner, as may render them perfectly secure, or they will be obliged to have them taken down, according to the Directions given by their Lordships in the said Order of Council.

J. Ware, Secretary.

Victualling Office, July 6, 1761.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling His Majeſty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Friday the 14th of Auguſt next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat with ſuch Perſons as are inclinable to undertake the Victualling ſuch of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels as ſhall arrive at Yarmouth in Norfolk, and be in Want of Proviſions. The Conditions of the Contract may be ſeen at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling Office, London, or by applying to the Collector of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms at Yarmouth.

Cuſtom Houſe, London, Auguſt 7, 1761.

The Receiver-General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms gives Notice, That he ſhall be ready, on the 17th of Auguſt Inſtant, and the four following uſual Days of Payment, to pay all Out-Port Corn-Debentures that became due between the 3d of June 1761, excluſive, and the 18th of the ſame Month, incluſive, without Intereſt.

The ſaid Receiver-General gives this farther Notice, That in Caſe any of the ſaid Debentures ſhall remain unpaid for Want of being tendered for Payment on one of the five Days above-mentioned, that no Intereſt will be paid thereon.

Navy Office, Auguſt 7, 1761.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers from the 1ſt of July to the 31ſt of December 1760, according to His Majeſty's Eſtabliſhment on that Behalf; Theſe are to give Notice, that the ſaid Payment will begin to be made at the Treaſurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, on Monday the 24th Inſtant, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, and continued the following Day, beginning at the ſame Hour, (after which the Liſts will be recalled once a Month) that all Perſons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid their Half Pay, but alſo produce Certificates that they have ſubſcribed to the Teſt, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to His preſent Majeſty; and in Caſe any of the ſaid Sea Officers ſhall not be able to attend themſelves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpoſe, that the ſaid Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Perſons they are employed by.

Equivalent Houſe, Auguſt 5, 1761.

The Court of Directors of the Equivalent Company give Notice, That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be held at their Houſe in Warnford Court, Throgmorton Street, London, on Wedneſday the 16th Day of September next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon preciſely, being the annual General Court appointed by the Charter.
